

A Note to Our Patrons...

We want to thank you for your patronage. We love seeing you and your children on a regular basis and guiding them to become readers, lifelong learners and library lovers!

Over the past year, we have added many new programs to accommodate different schedules and increased interest. We are so proud to work in a community where the library is central to people's lives. In an effort to make these programs run more smoothly and to be as fair as possible, we have the following policies:

- Age limits for each program will be noted under the name of that program. Programs are designed for specific age levels. We cannot make an exception for one child or we would have to make an exception for every child.
- In recent months, our special programs and weekly storytimes have been filling up quickly. We do everything we can to accommodate as many children as possible given our limited space! Sign up dates are listed in advance. If you have signed up for a program that you later realize you can't attend, please give us a call to let us know. This gives us an opportunity to offer the space to someone on our waiting list. Similarly, if you do register for a storytime and do not come to the first two programs, your space will be given to someone who is waiting.
- For those in our weekly storytimes, we ask that you make a point to be in the room before the program starts. It is beneficial to your child to arrive ten to fifteen minutes early to allow them time to get ready (getting their name tag, browsing the books, etc.) We will no longer allow people to enter the room once the storytime has started. Latecomers cause a distraction that can affect the entire program.

We thank you for your understanding as we work hard to make our programs enjoyable for everyone.
